

Details Of Information To Be Furnished By Applicant

1 General Information

- (i) Name and business address of applicant
- (ii) Type of business entity (corporation, partnership, etc)
- (iii) Contact number (both telephone and fax numbers) and email address of applicant.
- (iv) Name and details of contact person (including contact number and email address)
- (v) Internet address of applicant's World Wide Web site.
- (vi) Corporate and shareholding structure of the applicant indicating the ultimate ownership

2 Business Capabilities

- 2.1 Detailed description of applicant's business capabilities or business plans as specified below:
 - (i) Overview of business operations and business plan.
 - (ii) Management, communication and information processing systems used to handle domain name registration and related activities such as request for modifications to domain name registrations, including renewals and transfer of domain name registration, changes of registrar, updates to information and other requests
 - (iii) Capability for providing a reliable backup of registration data

- (iv) Capability for providing information systems security procedures to prevent system hacks, break-ins, data tampering and other disruptions to the operations.
 - (v) Capability for providing registrants with continued use of their domain names in the event of business cessation or termination of service as accredited registrar of SGNIC.
 - (vi) Organisational capability to engage sufficient number of qualified employees to handle the technical and administrative aspects of the registrar business.
 - (vii) Financial capability in the form of working capital for the operation of the registrar business. Evidence of working capital such as audited financial statements for the last three financial years should be provided.
 - (viii) Ability to meet all of a registrar's responsibilities and obligations under the Registrar Accreditation Agreement.
- 2.2 All applications should give the most complete answer possible, explaining all capabilities in details, and where necessary, attached all supporting documents.